

RIP.

same.
All?

Most potent sir! my name I free-ly give They call me Rip Van Winkle, where I pp FAC. CORNI.

CELLO.

live, Forth from my hum-ble cot this day I came, To wander thro' the hills in search of game, To wander thro' the hills in search of game. FL CLAR. The setting

mf p

sun surprised me far from home, But this I minded not for oft I roam, Amid the mountains with my dog and gun, Right trusty friends and others ask I now. Right trusty

f TUTTI.

friends and others ask I now, O'er-taken by the quickly fall-ing night, I pp Cello. Fac. OB.

started homeward when with great af-fright. I heard a voice that called me by my name, I heard a voice that called me by my name, And looking round to see from whence it came, from whence it came, I saw this no-ble sir, In want of aid, in want of aid, To help him with his bur - then, then I said, Good sir as - sis - tance let me give I pray, Good sir as -

STRINGS.

OB. CLAR.

-sis-tance let me give I beg, Good sir as-sis-tance let me give I beg and

STRINGS:

rit. tempo. mf

HENDRICK HUDSON.

on my back I hither bore the keg. Well hast thou answered now I bid thee lend Help to the

rit. tempo. pp FL. FAC. CORNI.

RIP.

feast And on the banquet tend. Most valliant sir what ever you re-quire But speak the ritard. a tempo. H. HUDSON. accel.

word 'tis done as you de-sire. E-nough, E-nough as-sist to f pp sempre pp accel